

Bachelor of Business Administration

Business Law and Ethics

Course Title	Business Law and Ethics
Course Code	BUS314C	Course Type	Free Elective
Credit	3	Contact Hours	45
Prerequisites	None	Co-Requisites	None
Duration	15 weeks	Class Type	Lecture

SolBridge GACCS Objectives	%	Learning Objectives
Global Perspective Asian Expertise	20 5	Understand fundamental sources of law including the difference between Constitutional, legislative, administrative, judicial, and international law.
Creative Management Mind Cross Cultural Communication	50 5	Examine the foundations of business law, including the CISG, fundamentals of offer and acceptance, and contracts.
5. Social Responsibility	20	Examine the major issues impacting international business transactions, including agency, negotiable paper, intellectual property, foreign direct investment in the US and Europe.

Course Description

This course is designed to teach students to develop a legal mind that is applicable to the business world. Students actively participate in academic discussions and activities designed to enhance business skills such as analytical thinking, written communication, oral presentation, debate, conflict resolution, and team work problem-solving.

Learning and Teaching Structure

The unit will be taught through readings, discussions, presentations, and debate in class. The textbook will be supplemented by other readings and appropriate case material.

Assessment	%	Text and Materials
Attendance	10	Readings will be provided by the instructor, and students are expected to be prepared for the class
Midterm Examination	20	with these readings. Material for class will be distributed via Blackboard.
Final Examination	30
Class Contribution	20
Successful Completion of Assignments	20

Course content by Week

1	Course outline, Sources of Law: Constitutional Law, Legislative Law, Executive Law, Judicial Law, International Law. Introduction to case briefing and debating.
2-3	Torts
4-5	Contracts
6-7	Property
8	Mid-term Examination
9-14	CISG: International Sales of Goods
15	Final Examination

Concise Syllabus 2016